For DOJ OIG
 AUSA Nicholas Chicholo and AUSA Daniel Nesson are murderers. They allowed Dr. Adelson to continue prescribing opioids for two years and would not allow the DEA to perform its regulatory obligation to protect public health. They wanted 1 million pills on the street before they made their arrest. The 1 million pills over a 2 year period was more important to them than protecting the public's health.
 The DEA could have revoked Dr. Adelson's DEA registration or confronted him on a regulatory basis. They would
